SOUVENIR PROGRAM

of the

AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

65th Annual Convention

August 21-25, 1956

Congress Hotel — Chicago, Illinois

Your Wish — A Reality at CHI-ANA

Americans are said to be a convention-minded people, and American numismatists are no exception to the rule.

Some of us have come with a sense of duty, to assist at the business meetings and take a hand in furthering the affairs of the Association. Some have come with a sense of pride, to make an exhibit, and of hope that they may receive an award for excellence of exhibit. Some have come with a sense of expectancy that they may be able to obtain some coins at the auction or bourse.

But, all of us have come to enjoy ourselves, to participate in the social events, renew old acquaintances and make new ones. Whether you have come for a specific purpose, or just to have a good time, the convention has been planned to make your wish a reality.

Welcome to Chicago and the 65th Annual Convention.

LEONEL C. PANOSH,
President

We Are Glad You Came

For more than a year and a half, members of Chicago Coin Club have been actively preparing to be your convention host. They have many hopes for the 1956 CHI-ANA Convention, but above all is the hope that YOU will enjoy it so much that you will want to come back soon.

To all who have assisted (and there are many) in planning and putting this convention on, we offer our sincere thanks.

6:30 P. M. Banquet and entertainment in Gold Room. Informal. Groups may make arrangements before 2:00 p. m. at Registration Desk for reserved tables.

SPECIAL CHI-ANA CONVENTION ATTRACTION

Through the courtesy of The Northern Trust Company, members and their guests at this convention will be privileged to view the World's Greatest Collection of United States Coins. The collection belongs to Louis Eliasberg of Baltimore, Maryland. Although it has been exhibited only three times, and never before in the Middle West, the collection is so well known to numismatists as to need little more than mention. The most complete collection of United States coins ever formed, it contains the great rarities of the series, as well as patterns, privately minted gold and outstanding Colonial coins.

Only a few blocks from The Congress Hotel, The Northern Trust Company will exhibit this collection during the convention week by invitation only. The registration committee will provide invitations for members and their guests, upon request, at the time of registration for the CHI-ANA Convention. Earl Barger, Past President of Chicago Coin Club and an executive of The Northern Trust Company, will be on hand to welcome visitors to the exhibit.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

AWARDS FOR EXHIBITS

Members are invited to exhibit selections from their collections, either in competition for awards or non-competitive. Exhibits are protected by insurance and guards around the clock while on display.

Rules for exhibiting and judging will be as announced in the March issue of The Numismatist. Suitably engraved plaquettes will be awarded for first, second and third place winners in each class in which the judges deem the exhibits to be worthy, except for first place in Class 2, Coins Prior to 1500 A.D., and Class 4, Paper Money.

The Edward T. Newell Memorial Award and the Amon Carter Memorial Award will be presented to the first place winners in Class 2 and Class 4, respectively. These awards were illustrated in the August issue of The Numismatist.

The Howland Wood Memorial Award will be presented (at the banquet) for the best exhibit at the convention, as chosen by the judges. This award may be for an exhibit not entered in competition for a regular award, but it will not be given to an exhibitor who has received a previous Howland Wood Award for an exhibit in the same general classification.
